Shebbear College Cookie Policy

_____

Introduction

This policy sets out how the website available at shebbearcollege.co.uk (Website) uses cookies.

What is a cookie?

Cookies are small text files which a website may put on your computer or mobile device when you first visit that website. Cookies are widely used by websites to help remember small amounts of information and give you a better experience when using the website.

Certain cookies contain a limited amount of personal information. For example, if you click "remember me" when logging in, a cookie will store your username (which could be, for example, your email address). However, most cookies used on our Websites will not collect information that identifies you, and will instead collect more general information to help us analyse how well our Website is performing so we can improve it.

How we use cookies

We use 'traffic log' cookies to identify which pages of our Website are being used. This helps us analyse data about web page traffic and improve our Website. We only use this information for statistical analysis purposes and then the data is removed from the system.

The table below explains the cookies we use and why:
